

REGULATIONS FOR VISITORS
EXHIBITIONS AND OTHER EVENTS ORGANIZED BY MTP

General Provisions

1. The Regulations apply to the Visitors of the exhibitions and other events organized by Miedzynarodowe Targi Poznanskie sp. z o.o. with its registered office in Poznan, 60-734 Poznan, ul. Glogowska 14, registered in the National Court Register – Regional Court in Poznan – Nowe Miasto and Wilda in Poznan 8th Economic Division of National Court Register under the number KRS 0000202703 with the share capital of PLN 288,348,000.00 and registered as an active VAT payer - NIP number 7770000488, hereinafter referred to as MTP. The Regulations also apply to the Visitors of the exhibitions / events co-organized by MTP and Partners.
2. The Regulations define the rules for the provision of services to the Visitors, in particular the conditions of (individual or group) entry and the order regulations that apply to the Visitors of the exhibitions and other events organized in the area that belongs to the MTP's registered office in Poznań or in other location, hereinafter also referred to as the event venue.
3. The Regulations are available in the MTP's registered office (at ticket offices and in Visitors' Service Centres), as well as on-line at www.mtp.pl and on the websites of various exhibitions / events organized by MTP and at www.tobilet.pl in the on-line Visitors' Service Centre, in a downloadable and printable form (PDF).
4. Entering the Event venue during the exhibitions and other events constitutes acceptance of the present Regulations by the Visitors as well as a commitment to abide by their provisions.
5. Journalists interested in visiting exhibitions and other events are subject to separate conditions of admission and rules for the provision of services by MTP as defined in the Regulations concerning the accreditation of press, available on-line at www.grupamtp.pl and on the websites of particular exhibitions in the on-line Visitors' Service Centre, in a downloadable and printable form (PDF).

Admission Policy

Categories of Visitors

1. Detailed rules for admission to various exhibitions and other events are determined by MTP and the co-organizers of events, and they are published by MTP on the websites of particular exhibitions / events as well as in the ticket offices and Visitors' Service Centres in the event venue.
2. Detailed rules for admission include, among other things, the information on the date and opening hours of the exhibitions and other events for Visitors, opening hours of ticket offices, types of admission documents for various categories of Visitors, criteria entitling to the purchase of particular admission documents (e.g. the age of children), admission documents' prices, the date, opening hours and route determination addressed to organized groups of Visitors, entitlements resulting from the possession of particular admission documents, deadlines for the registration of Professional Visitors.

3. Admission to the event venue is regulated, and sometimes restricted, depending on the nature of an exhibition / event and its importance, applicable legal provisions and guidelines of authorities (in particular the Chief Sanitary Inspectorate), as well as the category of a Visitor, for example through the designation of separate exhibition opening days for Professional Visitors and separate opening days for the general public, the designation of separate exhibition opening days for organized groups of Visitors, restricting a part of the exhibitions for adults only, determining the necessity to fulfil the requirement concerning the compatibility of business or education profile with the theme of an exhibition / event in order to obtain a promotional offer for admission, introducing the requirement of registering groups of visitors (school groups, tours) beforehand. MTP reserve the right to close the sale of the admission documents in such situations as for example when the pool of available admission tickets and/or entry cards to the event venue is sold out, or to temporary stop the sale of admission documents to selected exhibitions / events if there is a risk of overcrowding the event venue in the situation of a very large number of Visitors.

4. Admission to the mass event venue is subject to special regulations and restrictions due to the necessity to ensure the safety of the event participants (including Visitors), and the Visitors need to follow, in addition to these Regulations, the provisions of the mass event regulations. The Regulations of particular mass events organized or co-organized by MTP are available in the MTP's registered office, in the event venue (at ticket offices and in Visitors' Service Centres), as well as on-line at www.grupamtp.pl and on the websites of various exhibitions / events organized by MTP and on the websites of particular exhibitions / events, in the on-line Visitors' Service Centre, in a downloadable and printable form (PDF).

5. Admission to the Event venue is only possible on the basis of an admission document which is subject to inspection by MTP (readers of barcodes on admission documents, entrance gates, turnstiles, monitoring), with the exception of free admission cases (no admission document required) stipulated below.

6. If, in connection with the organization of exhibitions / events aimed at the general public, educational, cultural, sports and leisure, etc. objectives are to be accomplished, the admission to some of these events may be free (no admission documents required) for all Visitors, or it may be subject to specific conditions (ticket price lower than usual) for specific groups of Visitors, for example:

a) families with children - on condition that at the MTP ticket office the presence of at least 3 persons related to each other, i.e. one child with their parents or guardians, two children with their parents or guardians is reported,

b) students of specific faculties and universities, the profile of which is associated with the theme of the exhibitions or other events - on presentation of a student card at MTP ticket office.

The above does not exclude obligations arising from applicable laws, guidelines of the Chief Sanitary Inspector, Epidemic Safety Instructions (e.g. registration obligation).

7. The promotional offer for admission documents to exhibitions and other industry events is addressed to Professional Visitors, and it can be used after registration as stipulated in § 3 of the Regulations.

8. Discount tickets offer for some exhibitions / events is addressed to organized groups of Visitors, and they can be used after the MTP's acceptance of the group registration as stipulated in § 4 of the Regulations.

9. Admission to exhibitions and other events of guests, i.e. the invited persons, is granted on presenting the invitations obtained by such persons. MTP accept the invitations issued (printed) by MTP and the invitations issued (printed) by MTP's partners (co-organizers of exhibitions / events, media, fair participants - exhibitors), but such invitations are subject to prior approval by MTP.

10. The Visitors who purchased the admission documents at the points of sale (ticket offices) in the place of the event may receive the invoice during the exhibition or event at the invoicing points or after the exhibition or event by completing the form and leaving it at the invoicing point, information desk, customer service point during the exhibition or event. The form must be accompanied by the original receipt for the purchase of the documents.

The Visitors who purchased the admission documents on-line at www.tobilet.pl may receive an invoice via the service, using the "invoices" tab.

The Visitors who purchased the admission documents at points of direct sale or on-line through the agency of entities which were commissioned by MTP to sell the admission documents to the event, may receive an invoice directly from such an entity (MTP's partner) from which they purchased the documents on conditions stipulated by that entity (at an invoicing point or on-line).

11. MTP shall accept only the tickets sold by authorized partners which were commissioned by MTP to sell the admission documents (the details on the list of recommended partners can be found on the websites of individual exhibitions or events). MTP shall not be liable for the errors of the documents purchased outside the authorized points of sale. Only the purchase of the tickets from authorized distributors shall guarantee the purchase price offered by MTP. The purchase of tickets from other sources poses a risk of buying a fake, inactive, counterfeit, or reworked ticket, making it impossible for the Visitor to participate in the event without the possibility to claim reimbursement of the ticket from MTP.

12. Authorized partners commissioned by MTP to sell admission documents may add operational costs to the admission documents prices specified on the websites by MTP; MTP has no influence on the fact of adding the costs or their amount, as it is an independent activity of MTP partners.

13. For visitors, MTP also offers admission documents with the possibility of car entry (ticket or invitation). The document entitles its holder to enter the fairgrounds located directly next to the exhibition by car subject to the availability of free parking spaces, and in the absence of free parking spaces MTP shall provide a parking space in the car parks in a different location, e.g. in the MTP car park located in the fair area at the Matejko Street (detailed information on alternative car parks is available on the websites of individual exhibitions or events). Due to technical limitations, MTP it is not always able to guarantee to each holder of the document allowing car entry to the fairgrounds that it will be possible to enter the area located directly next to the exhibition.

14. MTP may decide to sell admission documents only online.

Registration of Professional Visitors

1. Registration of Professional Visitors is a prerequisite for the use of a promotional offer of admission documents referred to in § 2 Item 7 and defined in the detailed rules of admission stipulated in § 2 Items 1 - 3.

2. Persons representing or appearing in any other way on behalf of legal persons or organizational units and natural persons conducting business activity, whether it is gainful employment or professional career, are authorized to register as Professional Visitors. Persons acting privately, without the relation to business activity, whether it is gainful employment or professional career, are not entitled to register.
3. Professional Visitors representing the industries associated with the theme of the exhibition / event are the only Visitors allowed to register for a particular exhibition or other event.
4. Registration can be done on-line at www.tobilet.pl or on other websites specified by MTP on the sites of specific exhibitions or events (24 hours a day, in the period of approx. 3 months prior to the beginning of an exhibition/event until the last day of an exhibition/event), or at the Visitors' Service Centre in the place of the event (during an exhibition or event).
5. Users of the Visitors' Service Centre at www.tobilet.pl are required, prior to the registration on-line, to accept the Regulations of the service.
6. Registration in the Visitors' Service Centre in the Event venue is made by submitting a company's business card or stamp and completing a registration form, in which the data identifying the person registering as a Professional Visitor need to be provided (i.e., in accordance with Item 2, the so-called professional, and not the private data).
7. In order to use the promotional offer addressed to Professional Visitors, Professional Visitors should consent to the processing of their personal data by MTP for marketing and statistical purposes, to the provision of commercial information by e-mail and direct telemarketing activities.
8. The consent referred to in Item 7 is voluntary; however, in the absence of such a consent, MTP shall have the right to refuse the sale of admission documents according to the promotional offer referred to in Paragraph 1. In such a case, Professional Visitors may purchase the admission document at a standard price, according to the rules specified on the websites of specific exhibitions or events.
9. The registration form includes the following elements:
 - a) name and surname,
 - b) position, function, occupation,
 - c) name (company) of the entity / employer / business,
 - d) address of the registered office or place of conducting business activity (country, code and town/city, street),
 - e) contact data: fixed or mobile telephone number, email address, website address (if available),
 - f) tax identification number (NIP) or registration number in the proper register of business activity - in order to confirm the identification,
 - g) type of business (manufacturing, trade, services, etc.),
 - h) sectors of activity,
 - i) size of the entity / business (number of employees, size of the farm, etc.).

The registration form of a Professional Visitor requires the signature of the person filling in the form.

The data to be provided in the registration form should be truthful and consistent with the current state of facts, since only such data guarantee the due performance of the service provider's obligations by MTP. Professional Visitors may apply to MTP to amend or supplement the previously provided data. The request to remove the data reported to MTP in the Visitors' Service Centre before the provision of the service (the sales of admission documents) by MTP is understood as a withdrawal from the agreement by a Professional Visitor and it shall result in the termination of the service by MTP.

10. If MTP find out that the data provided in the registration form is inaccurate or inconsistent with the facts, MTP have the right to refuse to sell admission documents according to the promotional offer referred to in Item 1

Registration of Organized Groups of Visitors

1. The registration of organized groups of Visitors (employees' tours, school groups) is a condition of using the offer for the purchase of an exhibition / event admission documents prepared for such groups as defined in § 2 Item 7 and stipulated in the detailed admission rules referred to in § 2 Items 1 - 4.

2. The group registration form is available on the websites of particular exhibitions / events. Registration of a group tour includes the application of a person representing the tour organizer (e.g. industry chamber) and a list of tour participants including the name and contact details (e.g. e-mail address, phone) of an entity whose employees are the participants of the tour. The minimum number of group members is 10 persons, including the person who is the representative of the group, unless the detailed admission rules stipulated in Section 2 Items 1-4 state otherwise.

3. The school group registration form is available on the websites of a particular exhibition or event. Registration of a school group comprises an application of the school's headmaster or university dean, number of pupils or students, and contact details of the person registering a school group. The minimum number of a school group members is 10 persons, including the group's Guardian, unless the detailed admission rules stipulated in Article 2 Paragraphs 1-4 state otherwise. In the case of a large school group, for every 20 pupils or students there should be one Guardian of age.

4. MTP accepts registration forms from schools / colleges whose educational / scientific profile is associated with the industries which fall within the theme of a particular exhibition / event. The applications, regardless of the profile of the school / college, may be accepted by MTP only with relation to some events aimed at the general public if the detailed admission rules provide for such a possibility due to the educational, cultural, recreational and sports, etc. objectives to be accomplished during such events.

5. Organized groups should be first registered using the registration form available on the website of a specific exhibition or event in order to obtain MTP's approval. Having obtained the approval, the original registration form needs to be provided to MTP no later than on the day of visiting the exhibition or event, directly at the entrance to the event venue. The original application form is the basis for the application of the offer for admission documents to an exhibition or event referred to in Article 2 Paragraph 8 (discount tickets). The detailed method and date of delivery of the registration forms is determined by the detailed admission rules published on the Internet and agreed for particular exhibitions or events, and by the arrangements made with MTP.

6. MTP reserve the right to refuse the approval of a school group application due to: the failure to state reasons for the necessity of visiting the exhibitions / events in the case of non-compliance of the profile of a school / college to the theme of the exhibition / event, failure to respect the date of submitting the applications determined by MTP, organizational possibilities (e.g. the lack of discount entrance tickets, limited access for school groups on the exhibitors' request). For similar reasons MTP may not accept the application of a group tour.

7. MTP shall confirm the receipt of the application in a manner specified on the website of a specific exhibition or event, in which they shall accept the date and time of entering the exhibition or event suggested by a school, university or group organizer, or they may suggest another date or time of entering the exhibition or event.

8. The application of an organized group of Visitors accepted by MTP entitles the group members to purchase discount tickets in the number corresponding to the number of the group members. In the case of a school group, the fee for the ticket for the Chaperone is the same as for the pupil / student.

9. For the time of visiting certain exhibitions / events, an organized group, for every 20 persons, may be assigned a Guide by MTP, as well as have a visiting route determined. If groups of fewer than 20 participants are registered, MTP reserve the right to combine various groups, and in the case of a group with more than 20 members - to divide groups and to combine them with other groups. In the case of assigning a Guide to a group by MTP and determining a visiting route for them, the group is required to visit the exhibition following the designated route with the Guide. Assigning a Guide by MTP does not exempt the group Chaperones from their obligations concerning care and taking educative measures etc. in respect of the group members.

10. School / college headmaster/ other organiser registering a group is required to make the pupils / students or others participants and their Chaperone acquainted with the present Regulations. Group Chaperone is responsible for ensuring that the group members follow the regulations stipulated in the further part of the Regulations, and to follow the instructions of the Guide assigned by MTP.

11. In the case of non-compliance with these Regulations by the Chaperone and members of the group, including the failure to respect the detailed admission rules referred to above in § 2 Item 1-4, failure to comply with order regulations, non-compliance with the instructions of the group Guide, MTP may stop the exhibition / other event visiting tour of all members of the group, without the possibility of its continuation. In such case, the cost of the tickets is non-refundable.

Invitations

1. The admission to the exhibitions / events may take place on the basis of invitations issued (printed) by MTP or the invitations issued (printed) by MTP's partners (co-organizers of exhibitions / events, media, fair participants - exhibitors), but such invitations are subject to prior approval by MTP.

2. The invitation entitles its holder or a person invited by name to enter the event venue during the exhibitions or other events, as indicated in the invitation

3. The invitations distributed by MTP and their partners entitle the visitors to enter the area after their presentation at the entrance to an exhibition / event, or they require the so-called activation, stipulated in detail in Item 6 below. The activation is to confirm that the invited person shall come to the exhibition / event; it is used in order to calculate the number of the invitations used and forms the basis for issuing a VAT invoice by MTP for the sale of the invitations to the partners (e.g. exhibitors).
4. Activation may be done online at www.mtp24.pl or at one of the Visitor's Service Centres in the place of the event (e.g. in the entrance halls) during the exhibitions or other events. Activation online is free of charge, while the activation of invitations at one of the Visitor's Service Centres may be subject to a fee, and the rules of the payment shall be determined each time by specific rules for admission to individual exhibitions or other events referred to in Article 2 Paragraphs 1-2.
5. Users of the Visitors' Service Centre at mtp24.pl or bilety.mtp.pl are required, prior to the registration on-line, to accept the Regulations of the service.
6. Activation of the invitation consists in providing the number of the invitation and completing the registration form in the same way as detailed for the Professional Visitors in § 3 Item 6.

Processing of Visitors' Personal Data

1. The personal data collector is Międzynarodowe Targi Poznańskie sp. z o.o., Kancelaria, ul. Głogowska 10, 60-734 Poznań. MTP obtains Visitors' personal data directly from them, from persons registering groups of Visitors in accordance with the Regulations, from exhibitors or from MTP's Partners. When obtaining personal data indirectly from the Visitors, MTP may only process a Visitor's name, position, function or profession, name (company) of the represented entity or employer, type of business activity, address of registered office or place of business (country, postal code and city, street), contact details: fixed line number or mobile phone number, email address, website address (if any), Tax Identification Number (NIP), type of activity (e.g. production, trade, services, etc.), sectors of activity, size of the entity/activity (number of employees, size of the farm, etc.).
2. The Data Protection Supervisor appointed at MTP can be contacted by e-mail at: iod@grupamtp.pl.
3. Visitors' personal data will be processed in accordance with the conditions set out in Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data and repealing the Directive. 95/46 / EC (OJ L 119, 4.5.2016, pp. 1-88, GDPR), Polish provisions adopted to enable the application of the GDPR, other applicable laws, these Regulations.
4. Visitors' personal data shall be processed by MTP:
 - a) for the purpose and to the extent related to the organization, conduct and settlement of the exhibitions or events in accordance with the Regulations, agreement concluded with Visitors or general legal provisions. Providing personal data is voluntary, but the failure to provide the data shall make it impossible for the Visitors to participate in an exhibition or event organized by MTP. The basis for the processing of the Visitors' personal data is Article 6 Item 1 b) GDPR – performance of contract concluded with a Visitor (Regulations), and Article 6 Item 1 c) GDPR – compliance with a legal obligation of MTP e.g. resulting from the tax or accounting regulations, regulations on guarantees and warranties, or regulations on the protection of mass events.

b) for the purpose and to the extent related to obligation imposed to MTP by GIS (Chief Sanitary Inspectorate) to:

i. collecting statements that, to the best of the Visitors' knowledge, the Visitor is not an infected person and is not in quarantine or under epidemiological supervision;

ii. in the case of trade fairs, registering all participants of the trade fair in order to obtain data of persons staying at the trade fair, (processing based on Article 8a Paragraph 5 Item 2 of the Act of 14 March 1985 on the State Sanitary Inspection (Journal of Laws of 2019, item 59 and of 2020, item 322) in connection with Article 17 of the Act of 2 March 2020 on special solutions related to the prevention, counteraction and eradication of COVID-19, other infectious diseases and crisis situations caused by them of 2 March 2020 (Journal of Laws from 2020 item 374, as amended).

5. Visitors' personal data shall be processed by MTP:

- a) in order to determine the list of guests and other people from the outside (if possible) present at the same time in part / parts of the area managed by MTP, e.g. during the trade fair or event in which the Visitor participated, and possibly conducting e-mail, sms or phone communication to identify people who may have had contact with infected COVID-19. The basis for the processing of personal data for these purposes is the protection of a vital interest in the form of health and life in accordance with Article 6 clause 1. d) GDPR.
- b) to conduct direct marketing, which legitimate interest of MTP in accordance with Article 6 clause 1 f) of GDPR.
- c) to conduct statistical surveys regarding e.g. the number of Visitors, which is legitimate interest of MTP in accordance with Article 6 clause 1 f) of GDPR
- d) to determine, pursue or defend claims, which constitutes legitimate interest of MTP in accordance with Article 6 clause 1 f) of GDPR.
- e) in order to ensure the safety of persons and property during trade fairs or events organized by MTP, in particular MTP reserves the right to identify Professional Visitors who collect pickup tickets ordered at the ticket office or service point of MTP on the basis of an ID document, and also the right to verify, on the basis of an appropriate ID, the rights of Visitors (students, pupils) to take advantage of the promotional offer referred to in section 2.6 b) of Regulations. MTP also uses video monitoring to ensure the safety of persons and property during a trade fair or event organized by MTP, which may involve processing the image of Visitors.

6. MTP may disclose Visitors' personal data to its Partners, as well as entities providing legal services, IT, maintenance, administrative, security, accounting, advertising, postal or courier services and sanitary services, in particular to the Chief Sanitary Inspector in order to comply with its guidelines available at gov.pl/web/koronawirus/ and gis.gov.pl and allow authorized sanitary services to carry out an epidemiological inquiry in the event that it is detected that an infected person participated in the event.

7. Visitors' personal data shall be kept for the period necessary for the purposes set out in Paragraphs 4-7, in particular during the exhibitions or events organized by MTP, their settlement in accordance with applicable law, complaint procedure associated with exhibitions or events organized by MTP, and then in the period of determining, investigating or securing the claims arising in connection with the implementation of exhibitions or events. Visitor's personal data for contact referred to in paragraph 5 a will be stored for a period of 14 days from the day they were obtained.

8. However, MTP reserves the right to store the Visitors' personal data in order to establish, pursue or defend claims for the period appropriate for limitation of claims and punishable acts resulting from legal provisions.

9. Personal data of the Visitor related to the submission of the statement referred to in section 4 b, will be stored for a period of 14 days from the day of the end of the fair or event in connection with which the statement was made.

10. Within the limits of the law, the Visitors are entitled to:

- a) access their personal data processed by MTP,
- b) rectify their personal data processed by MTP,
- c) remove their personal data processed by MTP in cases specified in Article 17 GDPR,
- d) limit the processing of their personal data processed by MTP in cases specified in Article 18 GDPR,
- e) transfer their personal data processed by MTP in a structured, commonly used computer format suitable for machine reading. Visitors may transfer the data to another controller or request MTP to send them to another controller. However, MTP shall do this only if such a transfer is technically feasible. The right to transfer their personal data may be used by the Visitors only for the data that MTP processes on the basis of an agreement with a Visitor or on the basis of a Visitor's consent;
- f) object to the processing of their personal data by MTP in order to fulfil MTP's legitimate interests, in particular for the purpose of direct marketing.

The exercise of the rights referred to above can be done by providing a written request sent to the MTP address or by e-mail to: iod@grupamtp.pl.

11. The Visitors are also entitled to lodge a complaint to the President of the Office for Personal Data Protection when they consider that the processing of their personal data by MTP violates the provisions of GDPR.

12. The Visitors may consent to the processing of their personal data for the purpose specified each time in the consent clause, e.g. in order to receive from MTP or their Partners commercial information in the form of a newsletter, e-mail, SMS and MMS, or by phone, as well as in order to have the Visitors' image used on the MTP website or social network. The provision of the aforementioned consents is voluntary and the consents may be withdrawn free of charge at any time. MTP shall process personal data for the purpose referred to in Paragraph 13 until the Visitors' consent to the processing of their personal data for this purpose is withdrawn, without prejudice to the lawfulness of the processing which was based on the consent before its withdrawal. Consent to the processing of personal data for the above purposes shall not be required in order to enter the area of an exhibition or event, but it can be a precondition to use the promotional offer specified Article 3.1 of the Regulations. The consent to the use of the Visitor's image shall not be required if the Visitor's image is only a part of a larger whole (landscape, assemblies, mass events).

Other Services and Benefits for Visitors

1. The catalogue of exhibitors participating in the exhibition, Visitor's Handbook, guide or handbook of the exhibition / event may be sold or issued (if their price is included in the price of the admission document to the exhibition) in the MTP ticket offices, Visitors' Service Centres, Exhibition Office, and by the hostesses in the event venue. Precise information is provided by MTP on the websites of particular exhibitions / events.
2. Professional Visitors or guests invited by the exhibitors may receive, along with the admission document, a set of additional services (e.g. access to the VIP area), set out in the offer relating to a particular exhibition / event and presented on the websites of particular exhibitions / events.
3. During trade exhibitions and special events MTP enables the Visitors to obtain information on the protection of industrial property, copyright and combating unfair competition. To do this, a consulting point is arranged in the event venue in which information can be obtained from patent attorneys.
4. In order to facilitate visiting the exhibition and other events, MTP mark the stands of exhibitors in an uniform way, and the plans of the stands location are presented in the halls and in the outdoor areas. At some exhibitions / events MTP make up routes for guided tours for organized groups of visitors.
5. Getting around the event venue is facilitated by a clear, graphic labelling system of the halls and other facilities, as well as making the maps of the Event venue available to the visitors.
6. MTP provide the following payable services for Visitors:
 - a) food and drink (MTPCafe, etc.),
 - b) Xerox services (Fair Office int).
7. During the exhibitions and other events MTP offer the Visitors a cloakroom in the entrance halls, in which, apart from clothing, Visitors may also store their hand or other luggage.

Order Regulations

1. Visitors may stay in the event venue only on the dates and hours of exhibitions / events, provided that safety procedures are completed in accordance with the current guidelines of the Chief Sanitary Inspector (GIS) during the epidemic, which may include:
 - a) collecting statements that, to the best of the Visitors' knowledge, the Visitor is not an infected person and is not in quarantine or under epidemiological supervision;

- k) obligation to comply with security-related announcements at Event Venue announced by MTP.

Detailed information and guidelines on safety rules during the Event and at the Event Venue are contained in the Epidemic Safety Instructions available at www.mtp.pl in the Services - Travel and Stay – Safety Standards tab. The Participant is obliged to comply with the obligations of the Event Participant specified in these Instructions.

Persons vaccinated against COVID-19 with a vaccine authorised in the European Union are encouraged to present a document confirming the vaccination at the entrance to the Event. In the event that the vaccination document is not presented (for whatever reason), the Visitor shall be subject to all the rules provided by the law for unvaccinated persons (including, in particular, the obligation to maintain appropriate distances, the permissible limits of persons participating in the events).

2. In the case of non-compliance with the procedures referred to in clause 1, MTP reserves the right to:

- a) refuse admittance to the exhibition / event to individuals who refuse to comply with security procedures (including the failure to present the relevant certificate in the case of prerequisites for exemption from the obligation to cover mouth and nose) or individuals whom are suspected of being infected (eg. coronavirus) during application of these procedures;
- b) immediate removal of Visitor from Event Venue and prevention of his/her re-entering, in justify cases, call the authorities if the Visitor fails to follow the security procedures (including the Visitor's failure to present the relevant certificate in the case of prerequisites for exemption from the obligation to cover mouth and nose).

3. Event Venue - pavilions, stands or other exhibitions and the passages in the halls and the entrance door to halls may be temporarily closed or with limited access, limited to the number of people who can stay on premises at the same time, due to organizational or safety reasons, and at that time they may not be available to Visitors.

4. Taking photographs, filming and making drawings of particular stands and exhibits for commercial purposes requires the prior consent of the stand user, i.e. a participant (exhibitor) of the exhibition or other event. If the activities mentioned above may cause disturbance in the organization and course of the exhibition or other event, MTP shall order to stop such activities.

5. It is forbidden for the Visitors to carry out any commercial, canvassing, advertising, promotion, and agitation activities or cash collections not agreed with MTP, as well as the activities that are in breach of applicable laws.

6. The following prohibitions apply in the Event venue:

- a) carrying and using weapons, ammunition and pyrotechnics, harmful chemicals, as well as an open fire, which may bring the risk of fire, property damage and a danger to the health and life of people;
- b) carrying and drinking alcohol, except of for consuming alcoholic beverages purchased or served in places designated by MTP or a co-organizer (Partner), which additionally on the premises of Mass Events are subject to restrictions resulting from Article 8a of the Act of March 20, 2009 on the safety of mass events (Journal of Laws of 2018, item 1870, as amended);
